Theme-Evidence Coherence in The Night Tourist

Directions: Match the evidence to the theme. Write the letter of the evidence next to the correct theme. Then write a sentence explaining how this evidence supports each theme.

Theme #1 It is worth taking risks to help one's friends.	Evidence A "... he heard Tanya shout, 'Jack!' But he lifted the book closer to his face, pretending not to hear. The next thing he knew, there was loud, heavy metal music, and he was knocked off his feet and into the air. p. 6	Theme #1 Evidence _____ Theme #2 Evidence _____
Theme #2 People are unhappy when they have unresolved emotional issues.	Evidence B "But Jack thought about his father's late-night crying sessions. 'You ruined Dad's life,' he said"	Theme #3 Evidence _____
Theme #3 Acting without thinking about the possible consequences often leads to negative results.	Evidence C "So it's your third night here, is it? It's a wonder you've been able to evade Cerberus and Clubber for this long. You're a lucky lad. But Time is running out. If it's your mother you're destined to visit, I'd find her now. You may not have another chance.' Todd gave him a searching look. Jack swallowed. 'I'm sorry. I've got to find Euri."
